iWinsoft MP4 Converter is a piece of software designed to provide users with fast, reliable video to MP4 conversion capabilities. The application offers great stability, allowing users to enjoy their movies in MP4 (MPEG4) format on various devices. Transforming clips into MP4 videos is very simple with the help of this application, courtesy of a three-step process. Thus, users can have their favorite movies available in the new format within minutes. The best part of the deal is the fact that iWinsoft MP4 Converter comes with support for a great deal of formats for the original files. Thus, users can transform videos regardless of whether they are saved as AVI, WMV, MPEG, RM, MOV, ASF, MPG, MPE, RMVB, M1V, MPV2, DAT, or VOB. Following a successful conversion process, users can play their videos on a multitude of compatible devices, including an MP4 player, the Apple iPod, PSP, Zune, and other similar products. On top of that, the application arrives with support for converting videos to other formats as well. For example, if users have clips saved in a format not supported by their applications, they can transform it to formats such as AVI, 3GP, or ASF, which ensures increased compatibility. At the same time, it should be noted that iWinsoft MP4 Converter comes with support for transforming either single or multiple files at once. Courtesy of this batch-conversion functionality, users can easily encode a large amount of videos at the same time, regardless of their source formats. The software comes with a simple, user-friendly interface that makes it suitable for all type of users, even for those who lack advanced computer skills. To get started, users simply need to hit the "Add Files" button and start searching for the videos they want to convert. Next, they need to select the output file format and the output folder, after which they can kick off the encoding process by clicking on the "Convert" button. Depending on the length of the selected videos, iWinsoft MP4 Converter will create the new files within seconds or minutes. If it's about the Oilers, it's on Oilers 101. New home for no. 1 pick a good idea, but could cost Oilers $30 million more When the Oilers selected Barrie Central product Ryan Nugent-Hopkins with the first overall selection in the NHL draft on Friday, the choice had strong support from many Oilers executives and fans. Nugent-Hopkins earned the pick with a dominant Memorial Cup tournament and strong overall numbers in the CHL. The problem is his bonus-laden contract he signed with the London Knights before the draft, which will cost the organization $6.56 million over the next three years. In a press conference earlier in the day, Oilers general manager Steve Tambellini and assistant GM Chris MacFarland had no qualms about the selection, claiming it was a no-brainer. "Nugent-Hopkins just makes sense to us," MacFarland stated. "He has all the tools to be a number one defenseman. He's a great skater. He's got excellent puck skills." With the 11th overall pick the Oilers chose forward Anton Lander of the Czech Republic. Lander's father is Czech ice hockey legend Jaromir Jagr. Finally, taking a 17th overall pick at the near end of the first round, the Oilers selected player who many believe could be the best goalie in the draft. Offer fans should be ecstatic, because the 18-year-old has the tools and upside to be the man
